

to come to the induction ceremony. Once someone is nominated to the Hall of Fame, they remain on the nomination list permanently.

There is a ceremony on the Friday before the Ranch Rodeo at the Fort Worth Stock Show every year. It is by invitation only due to space limitations. There is entertainment, introductions of those nominated, presentations of the awards, thank you and acceptance speeches by the new inductees, and a dinner.

The new inductees are the stars of the evening. The ceremony also provides an opportunity for friends in the cattle and horse businesses to meet, mingle, meet new friends, relive experiences and adventures, share backgrounds and enjoy western heritage.

Thousands of people of all age groups have visited the Hall, taken the tour of exhibits, and visited the Western Gift Shop. Many have had their photographs taken in the clothes of the old west at the Jersey Lilly Photo Parlor. Since the doors opened in April of 2001 about 100,000 people have enjoyed the magic of the Texas Cowboy Hall of Fame.

As of April 14, 2003 there is a new exhibit has been added — "Texas and the Cavalry." The exhibit is a salute to the U. S. Cavalry Association Bivouac and Cavalry Competition that was held in Fort Worth in May 2003. The exhibit will be on display through the spring of 2004.

The hours of operation are Monday – Thursday 10 AM – 6 PM; Friday and Saturday 10 AM – 7 PM; and Sunday Noon – 6 PM. There is a small admission fee of $ 4 for adults, $3 for seniors 60 plus; and $2 Children ages 3-12. You can go to <http://www.texascowboyhalloffame.com> for a virtual tour or go see it in person at 128 E. Exchange, Fort Worth, Texas.
